This contract shall be subject to the following provisions:

1. Cancellation may be achieved by either party up to one calendar month prior to the scheduled services, upon mutual consent, with no harm rendered either party.
2. Should the consultant desire cancellation within one month prior to the scheduled service, the consultant shall arrange a substitute approved by an agent of the North Point Governing Board to provide the service, at a cost not to exceed the original cost of this contract.
3. Should the consultant cancel the contract without providing as above stated, or should the consultant fail to appear for reasons other than illness or public calamity, the consultant shall hereby agree to reimburse the North Point Governing Board twenty percent of the herein contracted stipend, not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) in compensation for such cancellation.
4. The consultant represents and warrants that all materials supplied to or to be supplied by him/her shall be original with him/her, except as to matters within the public domain and shall not infringe upon or violate the right of privacy of, or constitute libel or slander against, or violate any common law or any other rights of, any person, firm, or corporation (including school board). The consultant shall hold the North Point Governing Board, its licensees, and assigns and their officers, agents and employees harmless from any and all liabilities, actions, suits, or other claims arising out of the use of the material by them as supplied by the consultant hereunder, and from reasonable attorney's fees or costs in defending against the same, including, but not limited to, actions for copyright infringements, plagiarism, literary piracy, misappropriation of rights, slander, libel, violation of privacy or violation of any other rights of any person, firm or corporation; but such indemnity shall not exceed to changes or additions to any materials made solely by the school board, its agents or its assigns.
5. Materials to be used by the consultant, shall be the consultant's responsibility, unless arrangements are made with the North Point Governing Board or its agents at least two weeks in advance for production of the necessary materials.
6. The North Point Governing Board, through its agents or employees, shall make available for use at the appointed time and place the necessary audiovisual equipment as shall be specified in writing by the consultant in advance.
7. The arrangements for location and facilities for the contracted services shall be the sole responsibility of the North Point Governing Board, its agents or employees, and shall be deemed acceptable by the consultant for the contracted services, unless at the time of entrance into this contract a detailed written description of necessary facilities is provided.
